One of the most impressive funerals ever held in St. Patrick's Church was that of Miss Nora Breslin this morning. It was under the auspices of the Sodality, of which she was a beloved and honored member. The Church was draped in mourning, the lady pallhearers dressed in white, and the members of the Sodality were in uniform. The services throughout were very im-

Miss Nettie Roe To Become Bride of Mr. Yellman Hicks

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Roe, in Limestone street at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Nettie Baker Roe, the youngest daughter, will become the wife of Mr. J. G. Yellman Hicks, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles F. Evans of the First M. E. Church, South.

Miss Roe is one of Maysville's loveliest young ladies. For the past few years she has held the position of Second Assistant in City School District No. 2, and no teacher was held in higher regard than she. Capable and painstaking, her retlrement from the faculty will be deeply regretted.

Mr. Hicks is an Express Messenger on the C. and O. Railway, and was a former resident of Lexington. He is a most exemplary young man, and worthy of the charming lady he has won for

The happy couple will leave at 4:20 over the C. and O., and after a short bridal trip will take up their residence in Newport.

TERRIFIC STORM

Rectorville Neighborhood Suffers Great Loss Yesterday

Although the sky had a most threatening aspect yesterday afternoon, the rainfall, with accompanying thunder and lightning, was not unusually severe in the midst of the city.

Other portions of the county, however, were not as fortunate, and in the Rectorvillo neighborhood, where the storm broke in all its fury. the damage by the wind, rain and hail is estimated at about $25,000.

The crops were rulned, the loss on tobacco being especially heavy.

Mr. T. F. Goodwin, one of the most prominent farmers in that section, says the loss on his crop will reach fully $1,500.

The leaves were literally stripped from the atalks by the large hallstones, and on this product alone the damage will foot up considerably.

A fine field of tohacco belonging to Bud Sweet, South of the County Infirmary, was almost ruined, while a portion of the corn on the Fairgrounds looked like the city roller had gotten scared and run off in the field.

A patch of nico tohacco at the same place! has the appearance of having been in front of a Japanese Division firing "buck and ball"

The storm was one of the very worst that has visited some parts of Mason county in years. 'so?

If the methods that secured Cantrill's socalled nomination were disgraceful and dishonest a week ago, they are disgraceful and dishonest today.

If the little Japs get a few more whacks at the Russian Navy, all the remaining warships of the Czar can be quartered in the mouth of Limestone creek.

For some weeks Church people and Church papers have been so busy abusing Bishop Por-TER and the Snbway Tavern in New York that it has been necessary to employ several additional barkeepers. It pays to advertise.

HON. CHAMP CLARK of Missouri says he detests murder; and yet in a public speech in Indiana he threatened to cut the throat "from ear to ear" of a gentleman who disagreed with one of his statements. That one threat of bully CLARK ought to make 10,000 votes in Indiana alone for Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

WE may now look for The Bulletin, The Courier-Journal and The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat to eat crow some more; or will they have the manhood and independence to stick up to what they said about the disgraceful and dishonest methods that secured Cantrill's socalled nomination for Appellate Judge by the minority Convention at Lexington?

JUDGE CANTRILL says the friends of CARROLL opened bags and bags of moncy at the Owen County Appellate Judge Convention and invited all to walk up, help themselves and vote for CARROLL. Commonwealth's Attorney GREENE of the Owen District says that the cry of fraud on the part of the Cantrill forces "is a subterfuge to bolster up the high-handed and premeditated deal W. A. LEE had up his eleeve, and which he attempted to carry out at Lexington."

Each faction of Democrats having shown the other to be unworthy of confidence, nothing remains but to re-elect Judge BURNAM, an excellent lawyer and upright Judge, to the Court of Appeals, which he is now honoring as its Chief Justice. - Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

To re-elect Judge Burnam may be easy enough; but in view of past events, it might not be so easy to place him on the Bench The Frankfort Machine stands between the will of the people and the office.

HARGIS GIVES US A JUDGE.

Louisville Herald.

Judge Cantrill's title to the nomination for Appellate Judge from the aristocratic Bluegrass District was einched by the vote of the Hon. James F. Hargis of Breathitt county. Without his vote the Democratic Committee was a tie. His vote gave the nomination to Judge Cantrill, who went into the Convention with a minority delegation and came out with all the goods. Not only has Hargis dictated the Appellate nomination, but he has made men like M. H. Sautley and John D. Carroll bend to fate and submit to robbery, violence and fraud.

The New York Sua, one of the most force- | distant Hans; without helping to open the gates of power to political forces of uameasured destructive potentiality. It seems hetter to maintain unbroken the wall of defeuse which the first election of McKinley established.

> "Two things might have happened to make the choice of 1904 a choice between individuals rather than between parties standing on their respective records. Neither of the two things has happened. The first opportunity was deliberately avoided by the compromising tricksters at St. Louis. The second was deliberately thrown away at Rosemonnt yesterday. Barring Judge Parker's gold telegram of 1904, offsetting in some degree his two free silver votes for Bryau in 1896 and 1900, and barriug a public anti-second term pledge which might have been made, perhaps, more gracefully in an inaugural address after election, nothing has come from Judge Parker's lips or pea to indicate that I possesses a single political idea marking him as a statesman of Independent initiative, of courage superior to the St. Louis brand, of stature to command and lead. With the two exceptlous noted, he is an echo of the Couvention, and naught beside. He is yet the uuknown quantity that he was throughout the prelimlaary period of sileace prescribed by jadiclal dignity. Instead of rising above the platform Judgo Parker has crawled pretty Ignominiously beweath lt, in our reluctaatly expressed opinion. He himself has decreed that the choice of the Independents shall be one of parties and records and principles, rather than of men.

> "To state The Sun's position and its reasons therefor requires no metaphysical subtlety of explanation. The maln consideration is a broad as the Nation's interests.

"As the case is now made up, we prefer the impulsive candidate of the party of conservatism to the mildly conservative, temporizug, opportnnist representative of the Hun yote in the background. We have more faith in the publican platform and record. He cannot re- distinct promises of the Chicago platform, not hroth of dishwater and dynamite concocted at St. Louis a month ago by a party afraid to reuounce its criminal follies, and tasted today at Esopus hy a respectable candidate who declarees with gusto that its flavor is admirable.

"We shall, therefore, advocate the election of Roosevelt and Fairhanks and advise the defeat of Parker and Davis, preserving our own absolute indepeadence of organic coatrol and our freedom of judgment as to every specific question occurring. And may Hon. Theodore Roosevelt's present mood contiaue, and if he is elected may the Discourager of Precipitancy stand always at his elbow!

"lu the politics of the Empire State, so far as they concera state matters, we shall support the candidate, whatever may be the partisan designation of his ticket, who seems to us the more likely to give the people of New York the honest and competent administration their pnt lic affairs so grievously need, and to wipe out the shame and evil of existing grocery condi-
